

I believe that the "broadcast flag" idea is seriously flawed, and is liable to infringe on the rights of the public. It potentially interferes with entirely legitimate uses, and with the businesses which encourage those uses. For example, the ability to record a show and watch it later ("time shifting") is jeopardized. I strongly recommend that this proposal be rejected.

Donald C. Lindsay, Ph.D.